Tailpiece

You would probably be familiar with the trend in music (which really took off with the progression of rap music into the mainstream in the 1990s) to mention the automotive trappings of the high-paid music performer's lifestyle. This included regular mentions of Mercedes, Maybachs, Cadillacs, Escalades (those huge luxury SUVs usually on ridiculously oversized wheels) – you get the picture. Well not before time, our Italian vehicles have now featured in a modern rap which has become a viral hit and the backing music for thousands of dancing (usually) youths in TikToks and Reels. If all of this sounds like some sort of foreign language, just follow this link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FSfRRBNPfs>
